Business Manager

Fleenor Takes Kernel Post

Harold Fleenor, journalism senior, named business manager of the Kernel by the Student Board of Publications for the current year, began work on the paper this week.

Joan Cooke, who has been acting business manager for the first two issues of the Kernel, is now working as assistant managing editor and advertising solicitor.

Air Reserve Sends Representative Here

A member of the 436th Troop Carrier Wing (Reserve) will be on the campus Wednesday, to give information on the new Air Reserve program.

Anyone interested should come to the Air ROTC between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Wednesday. No previous service is necessary and the program is also open to a limited number of former WACS and WAVES.

Barter Theater Opens With Comedy Hit

"You Can't Take It With You," the initial production of Barter Theater to be staged here this season, will be presented at the Henry Clay auditorium Oct. 20.

Dates Are Announced For Proficiency Examinations

Graduate students desiring to take reading examinations in romance languages on Oct. 15 must submit their name and field of research in writing to the department of romance languages by Wednesday.

The foreign language proficiency examinations, required for graduation for the majority of students in the College of Arts and Sciences, will be given on Oct. 13-14. Students wishing to take the examinations must sign up by Oct. 11, in room 128, McVey Hall.

Welcome Mat Out For Alums Arriving For Homecoming Tilt

Cat And Dog Fight To Draw Many Grads

By Bettye Mastin

Several thousand alumni are expected on campus this weekend to take part in the annual homecoming celebration and to witness the Kentucky-Georgia grid conflict.

The former students will be guests of honor of the Alumni Association at a tea-dance from 4 to 6 p.m. tomorrow in the Student Union building, according to Miss Helen King, executive secretary of the Association.

A floor show will be staged during the dance by members of Alma Magna Mater, campus organization of children of former students.

Following the dance, the Alumni Association will entertain the group with a buffet supper, also in the Student Union building.

Houses To Decorate

Residence halls, sorority and fraternity houses, as well as local businesses, will be decorated for the celebration, Frank Maturo, member of the Homecoming committee of Suky, campus pep organization, said today.

Winner and runner-up trophies will be awarded by Suky to the best-decorated houses or halls as judged by a committee of townspeople. A student committee will select first and second place winners among the business houses.

Winners of the trophies, won last year by Kappa Sigma fraternity and Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, will be announced at half-time of the game.

Parade Set For Tonight

Souvenir ash trays decorated with pictures of the team will be sold by Suky members during the game.

Free-game activities will include a torch parade, forming at 7:00 tonight at Alumni Gym and proceeding to the downtown hotel where the Georgia team is staying.

A pep rally on the Intramural Field behind the gym will follow the parade.

The Suky Homecoming committee includes Jim Maturo, chairman; Frank Maturo, Rachel Johnson, Lucia Bland, Elbert Harber, and Janice Stille.

Visiting Engineers Give Demonstration

Demonstrations of recent developments in concrete construction for students, architects, and engineers were made by B. R. Petrie and J. J. Farra, field engineers for the Portland Cement Association, at the University this week.

The selection of material, design of concrete mixes, proper placing and curing methods, construction of forms, placing of reinforcing steel, and all other operations essential to the building of concrete structures in the field were presented in the lectures and demonstrations of the school.

Tau Beta Pi Appoints Delegates To Meeting

Morris V. Johnson and Glenn Weatherspoon, students in the College of Engineering, will attend the annual convention of Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honorary fraternity.

The convention will be held at Purdue University on Oct. 13-15.

Basements and back yards have become popular meeting places this week as groups all over campus began work on homecoming decorations. With beaver board and paint in hand, members of Alpha Delta Pi sorority above, make their plans. Around the table, they are: Gaylen Hansbrough, Tinky Cunningham, Joby Ridley, Ann Winfrey, Peggy Holmes, Dot Wathall, and Emma Barnes.

Members of the victorious Wildcat football team posed as they stepped off the plane returning from Mississippi. They were greeted by a wildly enthusiastic crowd estimated at 3000 headed by President Herman L. Donovan. Members of Suky led the group in cheers as the plane neared the field.

Library Exhibit Features The History Of Tobacco

By Clara Early

Whether you roll your own or puff a corn cob pipe you may be interested in the exhibit in the circulation room of the library concerning the progress of tobacco growing in the United States.

Main feature of the exhibit is "The Story of Tobacco in America," a book by Dr. Joseph Clark Robert, former visiting professor at UK, now Assistant Dean of the graduate school of Duke University. Dr. Robert reveals that he has a sense of humor by entitling the first chapter of his book, "That Bewitching Vegetable."

Other features of the display include minute books kept by early Kentucky tobacco companies, letters written by persons prominent in tobacco circles, and manuscript records of the proceedings at meetings of Kentucky tobacco growers protective associations in the 1700's. The latter records were purchased by the library after they had been discovered in a barn loft where they were discarded by night riders. Mr. Robert used some of the exhibited records as source materials for his book.

The Margaret I. King library has the most complete set of books concerning tobacco extant. Perhaps some of you chain smokers will be interested in viewing this generous display concerning the history of the "filthy weed."

Filing For Degrees Set For Oct. 14, 15

All seniors who expect to complete their requirements for graduation at the close of the first or second semester or the summer term, are requested to make application for degrees on Friday or Saturday, October 14 and 15. This applies also to graduate students who expect to complete their requirements for graduate degrees.

All applications should be filed in room 16 of the Administration building.

Candidates for the bachelor's degree will be charged a graduation fee of $9. This will cover the rental of cap and gown, diploma fee, the Kentuckian, and other necessary expenses.

Candidates for advanced degrees, other than the doctorate, will be charged a fee of $20, which will cover the above with the exception of the Kentuckian, and in addition the cost of the hood to be presented to the candidate.

The doctorate fee is $25.

Graduation fees are payable not later than the fourth day preceding the commencement.

Carnival Entry Deadline Set

All entries for the annual Lances' Carnival, to be held Oct. 21, must be returned to Walter Patrick, president, by Monday.

An explanation of the type of booth or show planned and the approximate number of feet in frontage and depth must be included in the entry. Each organization participating in the carnival must also have a sponsor.

Sponsor Pies Taken

A group picture of the sponsors will be taken in the SUB on Monday at 4:30 p.m.

The sponsor of the winning organization will be crowned queen of the Lances' dance in the ballroom of the SUB after the Carnival.

Trophies To Be Given

Trophies will be presented to the organizations placing first and second. Awards will also be given previous winners and runners-up for 1947-48. Winning booths will be judged on the total amount of money turned in, the originality and quality of the entry, and the beauty of the sponsor. All show talent must be furnished by University students.

42 Ag Awards Given Students

Forty-two scholarships have been awarded to students in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics after state-wide competition.

Dean L. J. Horlacher listed the following scholarship recipients: Jesse Jones Award: Fred C. Davis, John W. Duncan, James B. Wilson, Gene D. Rawlings, Donald D. Evans, James R. Jones, Jack I. Gregory, Justis E. Pendley.

Kroger Award: Frank R. Guthrie, Fielding C. Williams, Fay A. Simpson, Elizabeth Baker.

Fire Underwriters Award: Elsie Isaacs, Pearl Hill, John Norwell.

Mason County Farm Bureau Award: Margaret Myers.

Sears Award: Laurence De Mumburn, Marlin W. Crowe, Gordon Ruppard, Kenneth D. Stahl, Warren K. Dulin, Edgar W. Knight, Jack Arthur, Claude E. Hensley, Larry De Jarnette, Armin A. Parker Jr., William B. Wash, Tony B. Cocanougher, James P. Fehr, William Baumstark, George Burton, Robert Moyers, Glen McCauley.

Mills Award: William M. Hopper. Mary Gibbs Jones Award: Wilma F. Sumpter, Ann T. Florence, Marna D. Perry, Nancy J. Gulliford, Geneva M. Gill, Dixie Peters, Thelma Ockerman, Helen A. Rogers.

Famed Artist's Work To Be Shown Here

An art exhibition featuring paintings by James Leachy will be displayed in the art gallery of the Funkhouser Biological Sciences building. The exhibition will last for two weeks.

Kyian Picture Appointment Must Be Before Monday

Junior and senior appointments for sittings for individual pictures to appear in the class section of the Kentuckian must be made before Monday in the Y-Lounge of the SUB according to Jeanne Wilson, business manager of the Kentuckian.

No retakes will be made.

Cats Meet Bulldogs In Homecoming Tilt Rated Best In South

A crowd of about 25,000 homecoming fans will jam the enlarged McLean Stadium at 8 p.m. tomorrow night in hopes of seeing the best Kentucky football team in many years drag Georgia's Bulldogs up and down the field.

It is believed to be the first time in the series with Georgia that Kentucky's Cats have been favored to win.

The Blue and White gridlers will have revenge in their minds when they take the field as the Bulldogs whipped them 35-12 last October 9th at Athens, Ga.

Fire Lectures To Be Given

A series of lectures by authorities in the fire protection field will be given every Thursday at 11 a.m. during the fall semester.

W. M. Horn, chief engineer, Kentucky Inspection Bureau, presented a lecture yesterday on "Fundamental Concepts of Fire Protection and Fire Prevention."

The following is a list of the remaining lectures:

Oct. 20 — "Fire Resistance and Combustibility Ratings of Building Materials" by Eugene Short, fire protection engineer, Milliken Plump and Company, Louisville.

Oct. 27 — "Prevailing Types of Construction and Their Relative Desirability from a Fire Protection Standpoint" by W. M. Dening, chief engineer for the State Fire Marshal.

Nov. 10 — "Protection of Wall Openings" by Homer Trimble, vice president, Bradshaw and Weil, Louisville.

Nov. 17 — "Miscellaneous Common Hazards of Occupancy" by Earl McDaniel, assistant fire chief, Lexington.

Dec. 1 — "Heat Producing Appliances" by W. M. Horn, chief engineer, Kentucky Inspection Bureau.

Dec. 8 — "Ventilating, Air Conditioning, Blower and Exhaust Systems" by J. L. Thompson, assistant manager, Kentucky Inspection Bureau.

Jan. 12 — "Hazards Incident to the Use of Electricity" by E. H. Tichenor, fire protection and electrical engineer, Kentucky Inspection Bureau, and Jan. 19 — "Static Electricity and Protection Against Lightning" by Mr. Tichenor.

Tri Deltas, Lambda Chi Lead In Tag Sales

Delta Delta Delta and Lambda Chi Alpha lead in the tag sale contest sponsored by Omicron Delta Kappa, national senior men's leadership honorary, Edward Bresthite, Jr., president, has announced.

Other sororities in the upper division are Zeta Tau Alpha, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Alpha Gamma Delta. Following the sales of Lambda Chi in the fraternity upper division are Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Sigma Kappa, Delta Chi, Alpha Sigma Phi, and Kappa Alpha.

Three trophies will be awarded to winners in both the sorority and fraternity divisions. Arrangements are being made for the Independents and K-Club to compete in the sales also.

The contest is sponsored for the purpose of raising funds to support minor sport scholarships, a new program initiated by ODK. The recipient of the first award, Don Smith in golf, was introduced at the dance sponsored by the organization Friday.

"YES SIR HE'S MY BABY — That might well be the thought running through the mind of Coach Bear Bryant as he discusses plays with Quarterback Babe Parilli during an indoor session this week. Like other conversations on the campus, the general theme of the talk must have been BEAT GEORGIA."

Official Gives Library Talk

A bibliographical puzzle in the life of George Washington will be the subject of a talk to be given by Howard Peckham, director of the Indiana Historical Bureau, in the Margaret I. King Library, Thursday, at 8 p.m.

Two other talks by Victor Hammer, artist in residence at Transylvania College, on October 17, and Thurston Ballard Morton, U. S. Congressman from Jefferson County, on December 14, have been scheduled by the library.

Music Frats Honor New Students At Tea

Phi Beta and Phi Mu Alpha, honorary music fraternities, entertained new music students with a tea Sunday afternoon at the SUB from three until five.

Special music was provided by the University Madrigal singers, under the direction of Almo Kiviniemi. Invitations were sent to students of music and dance and to music faculty members.

The most important aspect of the tilt is that a victory for the Cats will give them an excellent chance to win or tie for the Southeastern Conference crown this season. The Bryanmen now have a 2-0 SEC record as a result of triumphs over LSU and Ole Miss. The Mississippi Southern win was a non-conference contest.

Weepin' Wally Butts will bring a powerful team to Lexington. Last week it took North Carolina, ranked No. 6 in the nation, until the last minute of play to defeat the burly Bulldogs from the Cracker State.

Dogs Strong At End Positions. End Bob Walston led the conference team in pass receiving, holding on 35 times to gain 525 yards and four touchdowns. At the other end, Gene Loredi, no slouch himself when it comes to hauling in a loose ball, snagged 22 for 440 yards last year.

Doing most of the passing for the Bulldogs will be junior Quarterback Ray Prosperi, who is trying hard to fill Johnny Rauch's empty sleeves. Apparently he's doing everything expected of him; he passed to Walston for a 60 yard TD play against North Carolina last week and hit eight other receivers for big gains.

Georgia's line, with All-Conference guard Porter Payne a big hump in the middle, is no push over. It's big and experienced. Payne and

LETTERS to the Editor

Editor, The Kernel:

Wants Recognition At Game
As a former UK student who has spent back-breaking and nerve-racking hours on a Homecoming Display—and as a winner for the last two years, I would like to call attention to the injustice shown to the contest winners and to the tireless committees who make it possible.

Homecoming represents one of the two largest and most competitive events on the UK campus. Many winning themes are conceived months in advance and no small amount of time, energy and ingenuity are spent in planning and construction.

Not only are the pre-arrangements worthy of comment but the actual labor and anxiety of Homecoming morning add the straws that break the camel's back. Every student who has ever been "in there pitching" on a display knows what it's like to get up at the crack of dawn, tear around like mad for hours while others leisurely dress in their Sunday bests, go to a Homecoming breakfast, drive through the streets to see the decorations and exuberantly stroll to the game in time to get a good seat.

Yes, Homecoming is a gala occasion for everybody but the tired, blue-jean clad committees who work 'til noon, jump into decent wearing apparel, fly over to Stoll Field in time to sit behind the goal line, and spend the next two or three hours trying to recuperate in order to enjoy the "parties" which they will attend as soon as the game is over.

But all this could be made worthwhile, if SUKY would arrange for the justified public proclamation of the winners! Personal satisfaction compensates for loss of sleep, time and energy. But what satisfaction is gained when the winners are announced to a handful of people at the SUB dance, twelve hours after the displays have been judged?

"So I sez, 'Who ever heard of a homecoming game at night?'"

Why can't the winners be announced to the thousands of spectators during the half at the game? Why can't the trophies be presented in the middle of the field. Can anyone question the added thrill and satisfaction the winning organizations, as a whole, would experience?

The Homecoming decorations are traditionally one of the outstanding features of the day. It is only right that they should be given a fair share of the lime-light.

This year it will be slightly altered because of the night game. However, it is still unjustifiable, to me, for SUKY to sacrifice the gratification of the winners, for a scheme to get more people to attend the SUB dance. It hasn't worked in the past—it has only succeeded in diminishing the incentive to have the winning display!

Whether afternoon or evening—let's have those trophies presented at the football game!

Sincerely,
Marilyn Morris

New Homecomin Look

Thousands of alumni from all over the country will pour into Lexington tomorrow to see, for the first time in history, Kentucky's Wildcats favored over Georgia's Bulldogs in a Homecoming game. They'll meet old friends and take walks across a campus that may look quite different to them.

We believe they'll see ODK tags galore, plenty of freshman beanies, fine Homecoming decorations, a redombed Suky leading cheers they can follow on mimeographed sheets, a snarling wildcat on a leash and a very sharp Best Band in Dixie.

We hope they'll see a student body that will cheer its team throughout the game, and celebrate just as heartily after the team wins. We hope that if the team loses, the same students will be able to say along with Coach Bryant: "It's still our team!"

A Change Of Scene

An excellent crowd met the triumphant Wildcats last Saturday night at Bluegrass Field. We only wish the team had arrived in time to see the thousands more who were there at 9 o'clock. It was heartening to see that many fans show so much interest in a team that certainly deserved all that and more.

There were a great many disadvantages, however. Nobody can be blamed for the late arrival, but it was a terrific drain on the spirit of those who stood for two hours, waiting. It was also the reason many more were not there to see the plane land.

But worse still, nobody but those on the front two rows in the crowd (and the two men standing on a statue) could see the cheerleaders or the team. The resulting cheers were often as flat as the area on which the cheerers stood. The new cheers and unfamiliar songs were completely out of place, also, but even on old reliable ones, the crowd could not be expected to follow the leaders well.

We suggest that in the future, when the team returns from a trip, the welcome be given in the gym or on Stoll Field. Such action would offer many advantages.

First, the crowd would probably be much larger—many people had no way to get to the airport. Second, the long wait, which might happen on any occasion, would be much easier sitting down. Everyone could see the cheerleaders, who could use their own public address system.

And in addition to these advantages, there would be no dangerous traffic jam at the airport.

We believe the team should be welcomed, win or lose; but it could be done just as well here on campus.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

LOOK AT Sheedy all puffed up with pride. And to think that only last week he almost croaked when he found he couldn't pass the Finger-Nail Test. Then a friend put him wise to Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. Now he's the big noise on the campus. Non-alcoholic Wildroot contains Lanolin, keeps hair neat and well-groomed all day long. Relieves annoying dryness, removes loose, ugly dandruff. So if you haven't switched to Wildroot, better hop to it right away. Get Wildroot Cream-Oil in bottles or tubes at your nearest drug or toilet goods counter. And don't forget to ask your barber for professional applications! (One at a time, of course!)

Gams' Spirits Bopping

Editor, The Kernel:

For two long years we have bemoaned the fact that the University offered neither jazz club benefits nor jazz concerts, so Friday's announcement of a possible answer to our pleas sent our spirits bopping.

It's time UK did what other campuses have been doing for so long. You can count on us for full support of a jazz concert program, and we'll be more than delighted to handle any of the many tasks required to put such a program in motion.

Very sincerely,
65 Alpha Gams

Editor, The Kernel:

Three cheers for the guys interested enough to give their time and talent to a jazz concert on campus! I, for one, would like to hear some live Dixieland.

The Spice Of Life

Homecoming! Homecoming! At last you're here! 'Tis the best time of the whole fall year. We'll laugh and dance, cheer at the game! Show the alums the truth of our fame. Our triumph and happiness will be worn like a crown. UK and the Wildcats will never go down!

Last weekend was a goodie; the Dome, "Basie Boogie," and the Kappa Sig formal provided much fine times. Boiling Springs is the spot for a dance. Atmosphere all over the place.

Bill Simrail is the only campus clown who has actually seen an "Under Water Orangutang." Maybe that is what inspired him to polish his car for Nancy Lou Eden.

What cute little blonde kept Gardner Combs spellbound by feeding him popcorn at Joyland last Friday night?

Boyd Hall has a complaint. The feller all stop by to say hello and then go to Pat for their dates! Just be patient. It takes 'em about a month to recuperate from the fresh invasion.

George Montgomery, Chenny Everett, Joe Newell, and Flebus Lebus took sail for Ole Miss after the Count Basie party and from all reports the trip was more than any boat ride!

Other tales from the Mississippi "merry-go-round" are being told by Lloyd Chilton, Harry Rouse, and Wynn Mosely. 'Tis said they tore up a Vandy pep rally on the way and "showed the rebel" fags the right way to go after game time. Another party, party, party, in Oxford Saturday was held by Jack Hibbs and Col. Fish Mattingly who lend the way with those Confederate hats and Kentucky pennants. The Phi Sigs had a little session, too, that was far from dry.

We knew this was bound to start —Janice Stille and Bill McClure, Bobbie Dean Yates and Jack Crafton, can be included to make it a foursome.

Betty Bush Botts says she is dying. Won't Ted Viemot please come to the rescue? Dave Cheek is a happy boy these days and Helen Morrow is the big reason!

Lee Brewster will soon be back in the constant twosome list and this time it's with Lucy Crawley. They just recently declared that it was "more" than friendship.

It's been coming and now it has happened. Flo Saunders and Freddie Dorr are pinned!

Shirley Pendleton, Billy Boggs is an interested boy. You'd better give him a break real soon!

A case of true love—Bobby McGuire comes all the way from Western to see Charlotte Watson. Zoe Parker likes this campus life. She had an especially gay time with Rade Wharton last Saturday night.

Mack Mayes is breaking hearts but highschooler Nancy Lou Ballard seems to be his first and only choice. Bob Scherer got a little chilly on the Phi Delts hayride. His date rode home in the cab of the truck. Diane Robertson had Johnny "J. C." Illies paged at Tomaine's at three in the morn. Got to keep up with the lover boy!

ALUMNI NEWS

THEN and NOW PERSONALITIES

1926
Dr. A. D. Kirwan, '26, dean of men at the University and former head football coach, is the president of the Lexington Optimist Club.

1940
Nancy Evans, '40, of Richmond, has been named resident head of the Kingsley Settlement House in New Orleans.

A graduate of Agnes Scott College, Miss Evans obtained her master's degree from the University of Kentucky. She has also done work at the Tulane School of Social Work.

1943
Laurence C. Pendley, '43, who received his M.S. in C.E. from Purdue University last June, is now assistant professor of Civil Engineering at the University of Kentucky.

1946
Dr. Carroll H. Robie, Jr., '46, of Lexington, is internist at Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa. Dr. Robie received his B.A. degree from the University of Kentucky, and was graduated from the Ohio State University College of Medicine.

Rod Beck has gotten away from the Chi O pack and is now seeing a lot of Mary Holmes Brand.

Speaking of the Chi O's, there are about three of them who spend most of their time wondering if Bob Miller is still pinned. We'll answer that question next week.

Our nomination for Casanova of the week goes to Roger Day. Can you think of a better one?

Marshall McCann had a date with Gracia Cochran and got wee bit happy. We'll have to mark this down as most unusual.

1947
C. A. Zoellers, '47, is district commercial manager of the Kentucky and West Virginia Power Company and is located at Hazard, Ky. He has a son, three, and a daughter 20 months old. "Future UK material," says the loyal alumnus.

1948
Maxwell Barret, '48, of Lexington, has opened an office for the general practice of law at 601 Security Trust Bldg., Lexington.

Mr. Barret's wife was the former Julia Johnson, also a University student. During World War II he served with the Army Air Forces.

1949
Betsy Peayhouse, '49, of Mt. Sterling, a member of the summer graduating class at the University, has been appointed children's welfare worker in the State Department of Economic Security at Frankfurt.

1949
Franklin W. Wade, '49, of Nicholasville and Winchester, has accepted a position as instructor in the Owsingville High School for the current school year.

He obtained his B.S. in Agriculture from the University in August.

Doc Ferrell, '49, well-known Kentucky football player from Richmond, Ky., has accepted the position as head football coach and physical education instructor at Prestonsburg High School.

Doc played four years on the Wildcat varsity as tackle. He was graduated from the University in August.

Cliff Barker, a member of the University of Kentucky Olympic and national championship basketball team, and now guard on the newly formed Indianapolis Olympians of the National Basketball Association, has been named coach of the team, composed mainly of his former teammates at Kentucky.

CONN-COX 'UNS

By Earl Conn and Hob Cox

We feel as though about anything can go in the old joke column this week for who will read it anyhow? Everyone's mind is on more serious things at the present time—like Georgia for instance. But possibly some souls seeking some enlightenment (?) as to what is the latest (?) in the line of good (?) jokes (?) may bear with us, so here we go off on another spree and don't say we didn't warn you.

Did you hear the one about the two fraternity men—

Bill: What's the name of that book you're reading?

Joe: What 20 Million Women Want.

Bill: Let's see if they spelled my name right.

Office Manager: Pardon me, young lady, but in the matter of your dress, don't you think you could show a little more discretion?

Typist: My gosh! Some of you guys are never satisfied.

Our poem of the week:
Despite all the rules
Of a body's creation
A tight sweater won't
Hurt a girl's circulation.

Prof. Joe: Do you still wake up with a grogginess?

Prof. Blow: No, I got a divorce.

tion to my daughter. Is it all on the square?
Woody: Oh, no, sir. It's mostly right here on the porch.

Gregory Stevens, full of gin. At 3 a.m. came stumbling in: His wife was large, poor Greg was small.

Greg's still plastered—on the wall! Sign on a store: Don't go other places to be robbed. Come in here.

Dismal Coed: Oh, the monotony of this place! I fear that before the day is over it will drive me wild! Richard: May I come around this evening?

Judge: (Rap, rap, rap): Order! Confused Freshman: Two beers!

Mary: I haven't slept at all the last four days.
Contrary: How do you manage to stand it?

Mary: I sleep nights.
(Yeh, that's what we think too.)

your earliest inconvenience.

State Politician: How's the sentiment out here?
Farmer: Not bad. There were six cars parked in my lane last night.

This one occurred in one of the bigger houses on Iron Works Road. Mistress: Marie, when you wait on the table tonight for my guests, please don't spill anything.

Maid: Don't you worry, ma'am; I never talk much.

The other day when the Wildcats were practicing punting, this one happened—

A football came soaring over the wall from Stoll Field and landed in a yard where some chickens were scratching.

The rooster studied the football carefully and then said: Girls, I'm not complaining, y' understand, but look at the work they're turning out next door.

Father: Young man, I notice that you're paying quite a bit of attention to my daughter. So you heard my daughter sing. What do you think of her execution?

Disgusted Senior: I'm in favor of it.

George: I had a nightmare last night.
Red: Yeh, I saw you out with her.

And the old proverb:
'Tis better to keep silent and be thought a fool than to speak and remove all doubt.

Following that one, shall we close with just one more little attempt at humor—ah, ah. Perchance, don't use that naughty language.
Lawyer: To his Italian client: Did you present your bill to the defendant?

Client: I deed, sir.
Lawyer: And what did he say?
Client: He told me to go to da devil.

Lawyer: Then what did you do?
Client: I come to you.

Faculty Personals

Dean S. B. Holmes

Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes, dean of women, spoke to the Younger Women's Club of Jackson, and to the Homemakers Club of Bracken Bracken County last week.

Her topics were "Education in Family Living", and "Lighting the Way Through Education", respectively.

W. M. Carter

Prof. W. M. Carter of the College of Engineering attended the second Anti-Friction Bearing Symposium held in Canton, Ohio recently. The symposium was sponsored by the Timken Roller Bearing Company.

The meeting was attended by 62 professors, representing 60 of the major engineering schools of the U.S. and Canada.

WAA Opens Drive For Membership

The Women's Athletic Association for 1949-1950 has enlarged its scope to include all women's athletic activities on the University of Kentucky campus. The annual membership drive is now underway. Anyone who is interested in team sports, or such sports as swimming, bowling, and tennis, is encouraged and invited to join. Instruction is given in the team sports since the University of Kentucky's WAA plays other schools in hockey and basketball.

This year's membership is expected to greatly exceed that of any other year. Until this year the WAA has been a rather restricted organization made up of girls with practically professional aims in hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball. The WAA council has now taken over the management of the intramural tournaments between the girls' residence units, sororities, and

The tennis doubles tournament is now being played with each group entering two teams. Each round of the game is to be played at a time agreeable to the entrants but within three days.

Scholarships Listed By Engineer Firm

The James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation of Cleveland has announced its third annual competition for engineering undergraduate awards.

The awards and scholarships are valued at $6750. Papers prepared by undergraduates on arc welded design, research, fabrication, or maintenance will be judged.

All resident engineering undergraduate students, including agricultural and architectural, registered in a school or college in the United States are eligible for competing for the awards.

Schools and colleges in which the three top awards are made to students will receive amounts of money equal to those awards to be used as scholarships.

Rules and conditions may be obtained by writing the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation, Cleveland, Ohio.

UK And Lexington Y Offer Swim Courses

Courses in swimming instruction, sponsored by the Lexington YMCA and the UK physical education program at the Lexington center, 161 N. Mill Street, will begin Tuesday.

The program includes instruction for non-swimmers, beginners, advanced swimmers, and courses for instructors.

A fee of 35c will be charged all students not holding a current YMCA membership card.

Trunks and towels are to be furnished by the individual student.

States are eligible for competing for the awards.

Schools and colleges in which the three top awards are made to students will receive amounts of money equal to those awards to be used as scholarships.

Rules and conditions may be obtained by writing the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation, Cleveland, Ohio.

Entering his third campaign as the Ole Miss football coach, John Vaught's the 26th Rebel grid tutor since 1893, the fifth since 1925.

NOW HEAR THIS ♦ ♦ ♦

By T. J. Clark

No doubt most people are too busy sucking their teeth and wondering what the Wildcats are going to do to Georgia to pay much attention to my ramblings about ye olde radio studios. But commitments are deadlines, so I write. (And having writ, I shall no doubt move on, be weighed in the balance, and found wanting.)

Now understand that I don't want to put myself away with you as a radio drama critic, for the only qualification I have along that line is ears. But I can lay it on with a trowel when it comes to putting praise in the right place. According to listener reports, the Dudley Saunders-Gene Arde thriller series, Tales of Edgar Allan Poe, is already a deadly success. Next up is Poe's "The Facts in the Case of M. Valdemar". (WBKY Thursday, 8:00 p.m.; WLAP Saturday, 6:15 p.m.)

The current master production out of the University of Kentucky Radio Service is the Kentucky Writers series by the Kentucky Radio Players. Last Sunday night's dramatization of Holla Summer's "City Limit" turned out to be the biggest thing that's hit radio Lexington in many moons. This week producer Lin Safford has scheduled "Taps for Private Tussle," a novel by Jesse Stuart, acclaimed dean of Kentucky writers. Starring in "Taps" are Mrs. Lelo Robinson and Lewis Sawin. Dr. Herman E. Spivey will be guest speaker. (WBKY Tue., 8 p.m.; WKLN Sun., 6:30 p.m.)

Old faithfuls at the radio studios are beginning to trickle back for the season. Dick Pigman, a balladeer with a perpetual folksong kirk, took the air last night in the opener for the fall. Strictly homespun and very listenable, I'd suggest you add his show to your Thursday evening schedule. (WLEX-WBKY, Thu., 8:45 p.m.)

In the Shows-to-Watch Department we add the new "Gershwin Song of America," which features Reynolds Large as George Gershwin and Bill Gordon as Ira. Music is furnished by the WBKY staff orchestra under Jack Feierabend. (WBKY-WKLN Mon., 8:30 p.m.)

Also in the STW Department, you might check on the revival of the Airline Theatre, now expanded to a full half hour of dramatic action. Right now the info on this show is shrouded behind turmoil and red-tape (a common radio ailment), but any bookmaker will spot you five to one that the end result will be good. (WBKY-WKLN Tuesday, 8:15 p.m.)

If you happen to go for jazz and the like by the wheelbarrowful, there's a chap by the name of Keller Dunn who has begged, borrowed, or stolen unbounded quantities of the

Campus Social Group Meets This Afternoon

The Social Committee, which makes all rules in regard to University social functions, will meet at 3:00 p.m. today in the office of the Dean of Men.

All applications for social functions to the social director will be presented to the committee for approval. A calendar of events for the semester will then be published.

The committee is composed of Mr. Bart Peak, YMCA executive secretary; Mrs. Margaret Durman, YWCA executive secretary; Miss Mackie Rasdall, director of the Student Union; Miss Margaret Storey, director of Women's Residence Halls; Miss Margaret Bruce Cruise, social director; Dr. Don Seaton, faculty; Dr. Jonah Skiles, faculty; Dr. H. A. Romanowicz, faculty; Dick Crafon, SUB; Ann Macklin, Panhellenic Council; Fred Nichols, Interfraternity Council; Bob Wharton, SGA; Betty Struck, YWCA; Lee Miles, YMCA; Barbara Kirwan, Women's House Presidents Council; Gene Stevens, Suky; Elliott Jones, president of the Veterans Club; and the president of the Independents.

Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes is chairman of the committee.

Charles Elected Head Of Phi Alpha Delta

George Fredrick Charles has been elected justice of the local chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, national legal fraternity.

Other officers are Bruce Stephens, vice justice; Robert G. Lentz, clerk; John W. Sublett, treasurer; and William Parham, marshal.

Guest speaker for a Phi Alpha Delta luncheon in room 205 of the SUB Tuesday will be Dr. Harry Best professor of criminology in the sociology department. Dr. Best will speak on the relation of criminology to law.

Sororities To Present Pledges Next Month

Presentation of all sorority pledges will be held November 17. A second bid day will be conducted at the end of open rushing. Girls who did not pledge in formal rush week are eligible.

stuff. On records, of course, and for the most part they're collector's items, dust and all. Try jazz Classics at 7:30 tonight.

If I write any more this week, it'll be found on the copy room floor this morning, so I'll come to a screeching halt. See you at the game.

Cats Meet Bulldogs

Center Joe Jackura are earning their fourth letters; LT Nick Fehr is after his third; LG Henry Love and RT Dick Yelvington are playing their second years. They average 190 pounds and growl like Bulldogs. Georgia's speedy backfield is led by 60-minute man, Halfback Eli Maricleh. Playing his fourth and last year, Maricleh tied up the North Carolina game last week with zig-zagging 88 yard punt return to pay dirt. He's smart and quick, has a knack for spotting plays while on defense.

Halfback Billy Mixon, the pride of Georgia as an all-state high schooler, averaged seven yards a try last year, but stumbles easily when slightly hit. Big Al Bodine will crack the line from the fullback position.

Coach Bryant's lineup depends on the flip of a coin. If Kentucky receives, the probable lineup will read from left to right: Benny Zaranaka, Bob Gain, Bill Wannamaker, Doug Moseley, Dick Holway, Smitty Yowski and Nick Odilvak. Representing Kentucky's best backfield in many years will be Babe Parilli, Dopey Phelps, Jim Howe, and Bill Leskovar or Clayton Webb.

If Kentucky kicks-off, starters should be Jim McKenzie, John Baldwin, Harry Ulinski, Pat James, Lloyd McDermott, Nick Odilvak, Dom Fucci, Jerry Claiborne, Dick Martin, and Lee Truman.

Tomorrow night's game will be the ninth meeting between the schools, two decisions going to Kentucky, five in favor of Georgia, while one contest ended in a 7-7 tie.

Engineering Council Gives Annual Award

William David Barkaw, Covington, received the annual slide rule award of Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honorary fraternity, at the Engineering Student Council Assembly.

The award, presented by Prof. John S. Horine, of the mechanical engineering department, is given annually to the outstanding freshman of the previous year.

Entertainment for the assembly was provided by a quartet and trio of the Lafayette High School department of music.

Faculty And Staff Assembly To Meet

A meeting of the University Assembly will be held on Monday at 4 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

All members of the staff are required to be present and all offices will close so secretaries and stenographers may be present.

Following the Assembly, the University faculty will remain for a meeting.

African Educators Visit Campus

A delegation of African educators were on the campus Monday for an inspection tour of the University and other Central Kentucky educational institutions.

Dr. Maurice F. Seay, dean of the University, and Chester C. Travelstead, research assistant, met and escorted the visitors to the University.

Rooms Open
Due to cancellations, several rooms in the Veterans' Barracks are available. Men who are interested should call at the Dean of Men's office immediately.

Tips on Togs

By LINK

SLIPPON — Slip into this SLIPPON sport shirt by MARLBORO and you have slipped into the height of casual wear. You will have a difficult time deciding between the corduroy or gabardine... both have the knitted bottom with long sleeves; in other words, you are right in style if your slippon is showing!

NEW SHAPE — A new shape in suits is here (just when I am getting used to my old one—and getting it paid for). The new shape in suits has NO tug at your manly (if you don't have 'em well padded) shoulders. NO taper at the waist and NO tightness at the hips. Try one on and "the mirror on the wall" will show you the difference—the price is NEW too and fits as good as the suit!

MY OPINION — Saw William (Bill) Gordon of Delta Chi Fraternity Sunday night, and in my opinion he was very, very neatly dressed. He sported a three-button, piped pocket, single breasted navy blue worsted suit. I also noticed his coat was of a nice long length (Tip! Don't be afraid of long coats.) He complimented this dark, hued raiment with white shirt, roll, button down collar, crowned by a tie of navy blue background with red and pale blue squares, cuff links of mother of pearl trimmed with silver... dark grey socks, and black suede shoes — Very neat Mr. Gordon, very neat!

THE DU PONT DIGEST

FOR STUDENTS OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

Research across the U. S. A.

YOUNG SCIENTISTS ARE BUILDING CAREERS WITH DU PONT FROM CONNECTICUT TO TEXAS

When you think of Du Pont research, you may think first of Wilmington, Delaware. Actually, only eight of the Company's 36 research groups are located there. Du Pont scientists now pursue their studies in 11 states scattered from Connecticut to Texas.

Each of these laboratories is a self-contained operation. It may be devoted in part to fundamental research and applied research, or to investigations looking to the development of new products—sometimes a combination of these activities.

Inside the Laboratory

In the three-story building at Newburgh, scientists have at their disposal the most modern equipment for study of coated fabrics and plastic sheetings under all sorts of conditions. For example, a new product can be tested in a room maintained at a temperature of -20° F. In other rooms, the effects of high temperature and humidity can be studied. Equipment is available for testing tensile strength, tear resistance, fading, flex and flame resistance, and many other characteristics. One of Du Pont's 33 libraries has quarters in the building; there is a photographic darkroom, as well as offices, conference and work rooms.

The Newburgh Laboratory works closely with the adjacent plant, which makes "Fabrikoid" pyroxylin coated fabrics, "Fibrilite" vinyl resin coated fabrics and plastic sheetings, "Tontine" washable window shade cloth, bookbinding materials, and other coated and impregnated fabrics and plastic sheetings for many uses.

Research at Du Pont

Research has long been a major activity at Du Pont, and it flourishes in an atmosphere of appreciation, encouragement and patience. The new products, the new plants, and the new and better jobs of the years to come will develop from the painstaking research programs being carried on today in the laboratories.

Newest Du Pont laboratory, at Newburgh, N. Y., was opened last year. It is devoted to research and development work in the field of coated and impregnated fabrics and allied products.

H. A. Van Eilen, B. S. Ch., Colgate '42, and E. R. Gries, M. S. Ch., Worcester Polytechnic Institute '48, investigating the properties of vinyl compounds used in plastic-coated fabrics.

K. F. Richards, B. S. Ch. E., Cornell '49, and E. K. Holden, M. S. Ch. E., Delaware '49, studying "Teflon" tetrafluoroethylene resin insulating material with special apparatus at the Newburgh Laboratory.

Choice of Careers

Each of the Du Pont manufacturing departments conducts continuous research. They operate much like separate companies, with interests ranging from heavy chemicals to plastics and textile fibers. Each holds challenging opportunities for college-trained chemists and physicists, as well as chemical, civil, electrical, industrial and mechanical engineers, also those specializing in production, sales and many other fields.

In this alert, ever-growing organization, young graduates can choose from a variety of careers the one that suits them best as their ability and interests develop.

Frosh Eleven To Meet Tennesse At Kingsport

Coach Joe Atkinson's Freshmen Kittens open their 1949 three-game football season tomorrow afternoon when they go against the University of Tennessee Frosh at Kingsport, Tenn.

The Kittens go into their first game handicapped by short practice sessions and numerous injuries, but several players have emerged as standouts.

"I don't know how good the Tennessee Frosh are," said Coach Atkinson, "but I do know this team has shown a lot of scrap and will give a good account of themselves."

Starting at ends tomorrow will be Bob Fry and Jack Hollis. Fry is a 6' 3", 190-pound Cincinnati boy, while Hollis tips the scales at 200 pounds and 6' 2" tall. He is from Aurora, Ill. Both are excellent pass receivers.

Smith and Weber at Tackle

The tackles will be Calvin Smith from Barboursville, Ky., and Carl Weber from Ambridge, Pa. Smith weighs 215, and Weber is a 185 pounder. Both are rugged on defense as well as offense.

At guards will be a Kentucky and an Indiana boy—William Johnson from Louisville, and Eugene Donaldson, who hails from East Chicago. Donaldson was captain of the Frosh in their game with the Reserves last week. Both are very fast and adept at pulling out of the line to lead the interference. Johnson weighs 185; Donaldson 205.

The Kittens' center will be R. B. Hodge, a Blueville, Ark., lad who has 220 pounds draped over a 6' 3" frame. Hodge has been performing well at the pivot post and will be an important factor in the game tomorrow against the Baby Vols.

In the backfield will be Bill Daniels and Harry Jones at the half-back posts, Jim Farley at fullback, and Bill Farley will direct the team from the quarterback slot.

Daniels, the 152-pound speedster from Paragould, Ark., has been hampered by a bad ankle, but should be ready to go tomorrow. Harry Jones, who looked good on pass defense in the recent Frosh-Reserve game, runs from the right-half position. H weighs 154, and like Daniels, is extremely fast.

Jim Farley, who will do most of the kicking, hails from Danville, Ky., the home of Dopey Phelps. He is a 190-pound line-buster.

Bill Farley at QB

Bill Farley, no relation to Jim, will handle the all-important quarterback position. He is an accomplished passer and a competent ball handler. Bill calls Charleston, W. Va. home. He is 5' 11" tall and weighs 172 pounds.

Also slated for duty in the backfield tomorrow are Tommy Fillion, who has shown promise as a runner; John Brainard, who was the star for the Reserves in that game last week; and Allen Buckner, who will be used as the defensive fullback.

The squad leaves for Kingsport at 8 p.m. today. Game time tomorrow is 2 o'clock.—By Bob Gorman.

Block And Bridle Plans Fall Festival

Plans for the Block and Bridle annual fall festival, of which the main feature is the awarding of various scholarships, were begun at a recent meeting of the club.

Another feature of the Block and Bridle fall program will be the showing of stock in a national contest to be held in Chicago. The date of the contest will be announced later.

A barbecue sponsored by the organization will be held Thursday, Prof. W. P. Garrigue, advisor for the group, announced.

Glikstein Elected Tau Kappa President

Arthur Glikstein was recently elected president of Tau Kappa. Other officers are Paul Wright, vice president; and Ben Cohn, secretary-treasurer.

BOB WALSTON, is a six-foot, 185-pound end from Columbus, Ohio. He led the SEC last year in pass receptions with 25 snags, for 325 yards and four touchdowns. He is a 20-year old junior. Walston, in high school, played football, basketball, and baseball and was a member of the swimming and track teams in his spare time.

Herald-Tribune Gives Forum Tickets To UK

The University has been allotted two student tickets and one faculty member ticket for the New York Herald Tribune Forum to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City, on Oct. 24-26.

Anyone interested in going to the Forum should call at the Dean of Women's office as soon as possible.

The Forum began in 1930 when a group of community organizations, asking program guidance, came to the editors of the Herald Tribune. Annually, representatives from all over the United States gather in New York to discuss world affairs and problems. Information concerning programs and leadership is also given.

Cats Make Big Mess Out Of Ole Miss

Kentucky's up-and-coming Wildcats spoiled the Ole Miss Rebels' homecoming last Saturday with a smashing 47-0 upset victory.

The Cats, who went into the fray a 6-point underdog, outfought the Rebels at every turn to record the most lopsided win ever handed the Rebels on their home field.

This victory evened the Kentucky-Ole Miss rivalry at three apiece, and catapulted the Blue and White into the role of a major contender for the Southeastern Conference crown.

Here's how they did it:

Touchdown one: Leskovar went five yards over guard after a 15-yard penalty against the Rebels. Boller added the point to make it 7-0.

Touchdown two: Parilli squeezed one yard through guard following another 15-yard penalty. Boller again added the point, 14-0.

Touchdown three: Howe took a 29-yard pass from Parilli on a bootleg play. P.A.T. missed, 20-0.

Touchdown four: Boller dashed around left end for nine yards after Jamerson intercepted a pass on the Ky. 25 and nine yards after Jamerson intercepted a pass on the Ky. 25 and ran it back 66 yards. Boller added the point, 27-0.

Touchdown five: Jamerson went off-tackle for 53 yards and made it 33-0.

Touchdown six: Don Frampton grabbed an attempted lateral and scampered 86 yards to make it 39-0. Brooks added the 40th point on the p.a.t.

Touchdown seven: Tackle Jim McKenzie intercepted a pass in the Ole Miss backfield and loped 25 yards to paydirt. Brooks again converted to make the final score 47-0.

Player Of Week

BABE PARILLI

The Kentucky Wildcats' magnificent win over the Ole Miss eleven last Saturday was definitely a team victory. Practically every member of the UK team who saw action turned in a fine performance.

As a result The Kernel has selected as The Player of the Week, Babe Parilli, because he was one of the outstanding players not only against the Rebels, but also in the LSU and the Mississippi Southern contests.

In the Ole Miss tilt, Parilli completed six passes in 11 attempts. For the season, the lad from Rochester, Penn., now has a record of 25 completions in 43 tosses. Of these aials, only one has been intercepted.

Although UK's quarterback of last season, George Blanda, is rated as a better kicker than Parilli, Babe is more dangerous threat to the opposition because of his ability to carry the ball if necessary. He is a better than average runner, which combined with his outstanding passing talents, make him a big headache to the opposing defense.

This is only Babe's second season at handling the T-formation quarterback duties. He acquired valuable experience last fall with the freshmen eleven.

In high school, Parilli played both fullback and quarterback. "We used mostly the single wing system, with just a few T-formation plays."

"Did you ever play against Bob Beruk (the Cats' reserve quarterback) in high school?" asked?

"Yes, one of the most exciting games I ever played was against Bob. He was captain and quarterback for Ambridge High (Pa.) and I was named as game captain for Rochester High. About 21,000 people turned out for this game, which we won 21-19 in the last few minutes of play."

One of Babe's high school teammates was Skip Doyle, who is now a sophomore at Ohio State. Some claim that Doyle is potentially a greater player than Parilli, which of course remains to be seen.

After graduation, Babe received quite a few offers from various colleges, including North Carolina, Ohio State, Indiana, Penn State and Pitt.

Almost Decided on Indiana

"I didn't care too much for Ohio State," said the dark-haired 20-year old Pennsylvanian. "But I almost went to Indiana. Two of the boys from my high school team went there." Pointing to last Sunday sports page showing the score "Ohio State 46, Indiana 7", Babe smiled slowly and added, "I'm glad I did come down here now." And we might add that UK's 7600 students are more than glad that the well-proportioned Italian decided on Kentucky.

Sportswriters and radiomen covering the Wildcats this fall have all been impressed with Parilli, not only by his great natural ability and coolness under fire, but also for his modesty and sincerity off the gridiron.

The Kentucky football future looks bright with Babe Parilli and 26 other promising sophomores on the squad, all anxious to help the Wildcats move up in the 12-team South-eastern Conference standings.

Johnny Owens. Stranahan Win

By Bob Gorham

Johnny Owens, captain of the UK golf team, and Frank Stranahan, former British and Canadian amateur king, defeated Cary Middlecoff, the National Open champ, and Jim Coleman, former Ole Miss titleholder, 1 up, in an exhibition golf match last Saturday at Oxford, Miss.

Played as part of the Ole Miss homecoming festivities, the match was a forecast of what was to happen in the afternoon when the Wildcats stomped the Ole Miss footballers, to ruin the whole day for the Rebels.

Owens, who had trouble with his wood shots all morning, nevertheless turned in a respectable 36, par for the course, by making some beautiful recovery shots out of the rough. Stranahan was low man with a five-under-par 31; Middlecoff had a 33, and Coleman a 34.

After halving the first hole, Owens and Stranahan went 1 up on No. 2, when Stranahan dropped a 35-foot, downhill putt for a birdie 3. Coleman evened things on the next hole when his pitch from about 15 feet off the green dropped in for a birdie 2.

They halved No. 5, but Owens had his best hole of the round on No. 6. After a long drive, his second shot landed about six feet from the pin, and Johnny dropped his putt for an eagle 3 on the 450-yard, par 5 hole.

Middlecoff and Coleman took the next hole to flat the match again, and the eighth hole was halved. But on the last hole, Stranahan uncorked a 325-yard drive, and his approach left him a one-foot putt for his fifth birdie and the match.

Varsity Cagers Start Practice

Although basketball practice doesn't officially start until Monday, Kentucky's NCAA champions have been working out informally in Alumni Gym for the past two weeks.

Guard offense drills and an hour of shooting practice each day have been getting the varsity in shape for the coming 24-game schedule.

Four men returned from last year's champions, three experienced lettermen.

Seniors Dale Barnstable and Jim Line are expected to be the steady influence on the relatively green squad.

Barney started most of last season at the guard position along with Ralph Beard, before switching places with Cliff Barker and moving into the forward slot. He'll probably be moved back out on the front line again this year.

Jim Line, whose strong left arm dangled uselessly from the bench most of last season, wound up tournament play one of the most valuable members on the squad. He scored when no one else could, almost single-armedly keeping Kentucky in the NCAA. He's a calm, cool, clutch player, who, if he improves on defense, will be a likely All-American candidate.

Walt Hirsch, 6' 4" junior, started several games last year and distinguished himself as a ball handler. He operates around the pivot as well as in the forward slot, and will probably be switched to center when Grits Spivey tires. Roger Day, who hit 53 percent of his shots from the field last year in somewhat limited play, is back and hitting the hoop from far out as usual.

Up from the undefeated freshman team and looking for a starting berth is seven-foot Spivey; a host of candidates are eyeing the wide open guard position, among them

Excellence WITHOUT Extravagance

College students are busy people. They rush, and rush, yet there aren't hours enough in the day to do everything. Being human, a student occasionally forgets his soiled laundry and dry cleaning. And, what do you know, there's same sort of party coming up! For example . . . no clean shirts, the last one soiled, and the party deadline is TOMORROW NIGHT. Don't despair, there's an answer . . .

BECKER has that answer in its convenient SAME-DAY-SERVICE. Laundry and dry cleaning brought in before 9 a.m. will be waiting for you spick and span come 5 p.m. the SAME DAY, and there's only a slight extra charge. REMEMBER . . . SDS, Same-Day-Service is insurance against ever being caught without clean garments. Yes, S-D-S

DisKintucky Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

Congratulations to Coach Bear Bryant and his Wildcats for their terrific victory over a good Ole Miss football team Saturday. It was undoubtedly the greatest win for a Kentucky eleven in recent years, if not since the inception of sports here in 1881.

For the Mississippi Rebels, the 47-0 defeat was the worst they have suffered on their campus in 56 years of football competition.

One point has been somewhat overlooked, we believe. That is the tremendous scouting jobs that Coach Bryant's assistants have been doing this season. LSU was stopped cold, getting inside the UK five-yard line just once. Ole Miss never got farther than the eight-yard stripe of the Wildcats.

One Rebel player said after the game that "Kentucky always seemed to know what we were going to run."

As a result of Kentucky's win over Mississippi, Coach Bryant was named as the Southeastern Conference's "Coach of the Week." Of the 26 votes cast by sportswriters in the South, the UK head mentor received 19. LSU's Gus Tinsley got six votes; while Vandy's Bill Edwards received one.

Tomorrow night's game with Georgia will be one of the most important ever played on Stoll Field. A win for the amazing Wildcats will very probably move them into the upper 10 teams in the nation. Going into the Bulldog tilt, the Lexington Lynxmen are now ranked as the No. 14 team in the country.

Georgia should not be underestimated. According to the Kentucky scouts, Weepin' Wally Butts' bruisers are stronger than last season, when they clipped the Cats at Athens, 35-12. Our scouts believe that Georgia's most dangerous runners are Breezy Keld, who was out of the Carolina game last week with an injury; speedy Eli Marichich, a beautiful broken-field runner; Halfback Billy Mixon; and Fullbacks John Tillitski and Al Eodine, both of whom played prominent parts in last year's win over the Cats.

A Kentucky win over the tough Bulldogs would be one of the sweetest homecoming victories in the 68-year-old history of UK football.

Charlie Bradshaw will definitely be missed this season on offense. Coach Bryant wasn't just saying words when he said Charlie "was a great competitor, a good leader and a very fine player."

Charlie seemed to improve with each game. Against the Rebels last week, the Montgomery, Ala., lad made one of the finest catches of the season on a Farill pass. Bradshaw snagged the aerial while falling to his knees and with an Ole Miss defensive back practically hanging on his neck. Charlie was the leading pass receiver this season with seven, good for 75 yards.

We couldn't help but notice the wonderful school spirit down at Ole Miss last week. Despite the fact that their team was losing by several touchdowns, the Mississippi students never gave up. They encouraged the Rebel team with cheers throughout the entire game. All the blue-capped freshmen sat in a group and yelled for their gridders from the opening kickoff until the final whistle.

We sincerely hope that the students here will be just as enthusiastic for the big homecoming weekend and turn out in full force for the big SuKy pep rally planned for this evening. Let's back our team, SuKy and the newly-formed Spirit, Inc., one hundred percent.

The biggest threat to a very successful season for the Kentucky Wildcat football team right now is overconfidence. All this week we have been hearing about how the Cats are going to take Georgia. Although we are favored to win by one touchdown, a wet, slow gridiron will definitely help the big Bulldog line.

Coech Wally Butts always comes up with a fine team. The Georgia eleven is nationally known for the excellent condition they maintain. MANY times in the past seasons they have worn down rivals by sheer power and then won the game in the fourth quarter when the opposition tired.

The visitors from the Cracker State also will remember the last time they played on Stoll Field, when UK whipped them, 26-0.

We'll settle for a one-point victory by our Wildcats tomorrow.

Bradshaw Out; SEC Says End Is Ineligible

Senior End Charles Bradshaw was ruled ineligible for further varsity play last Tuesday by Commissioner Bernie Moore of the Southeastern Conference nullifying his attempt to complete his fourth year of competition for the Wildcats.

Bradshaw's status hinged on the interpretation of a wartime ruling. The rule states that a player enrolled prior to July 1, 1947, may play four years of football provided one of these varsity years is played while a freshman scholastically or if the player participates in one year of freshman and three years of varsity football.

Bradshaw entered school in 1942, stayed one semester and enlisted in the Marines. He did not play football that year. In 1946, he returned to UK and played three seasons. Charlie, a converted center, has played offensive right end in the Cats' first three games.
